

Esaote further expand UK team with appointment of a new Southern Regional Account Manager.

Esaote is pleased to announce that Jan Murphy has joined their expanding ultrasound sales team as a Regional Account Manager covering London and the South East

Jan initially trained as an RGN and Midwife working in the NHS before taking on a sales role at a pharmaceutical company in the early 90's. She then progressed into selling capital medical equipment and consumables in the fields of pulse oximetry, blood gas analyses and ophthalmics. For the last 10 years Jan has worked as Regional Sales Manager for the North London Area building a successful career selling ultrasound products across a wide range of specialities and to both the NHS and private markets.

Jan said "I am excited to have joined Esaote and look forward to working closely with the team to help grow the UK market. Having seen the use of Ultrasound grow over the last 10 years I appreciate what a difference this modality makes to clinicians and patient management in a wide range of specialities".

Esaote is one of the top ten global medical imaging companies specialising in ultrasound, MRI technology and healthcare IT, use of which has been growing for many years, helping to speed up and improve diagnosis.
